The programme of lectures will be announced later on by means of handbills. For lectures, admission will be free. During the time of the lectures, the Exhibition stalls will not be kept open to the public.

6. For special visitors arrangements will be made to keep the Exhibition open during the hours not specified in the above programme.

7. The following scale of fees will be levied for admission into the Exhibition premises :—

Particulars.	Fees. Rs. a. p.
(a) For each individual	0 4 0	per visit.
(b) Family tickets for a family not exceeding five members	0 12 0	per visit.
(c) For a family of more than five members ...	0 2 0	for each additional member.
(d) For bona fide school students	0 2 0	or half the rate.
(e) For a season ticket for a single individual for the whole period	3 0 0

☞ Tickets will be collected at the gate at the time of entrance.

Tickets will be sent to the Principals of Colleges and Head Masters of Schools in the Mysore City for distribution and collection of fees. Students from other centres who may happen to be in Mysore at the time of the Exhibition may get tickets at the same rates from the various Head Masters in the Mysore City.

8. Free pass will be given to every exhibitor or his agent or servant, and to men on duty.

9. Raiyats and artizans who are unable to pay admission fees will be given free passes on production of certificates from the Deputy Commissioners of Districts, who are requested to send them in batches.

10. The Deputy Commissioners may also, in cases where the raiyats and artizans are too poor to pay the railway fare to and fro, but are so intelligent as to profit by visiting the Exhibition, recommend the payment of such fares and the Committee will defray such charges. This concession should be availed of with caution and only in deserving cases. The raiyats and artizans should make their own arrangements for their board and lodging.

11. The Committee will arrange, through private agencies, to open a hotel for the use of the exhibitors, etc., in the vicinity of the Exhibition grounds from the 1st of October 1907.

12. Any alterations in or additions to the above or any special arrangements, will be announced later on by means of notices and hand bills.

K. SUBBA RAO,
Secretary.
